ATTENTION NINTH AND TENTH GRADERS!

The Louisiana Children's Museum is launching a teen character education program starting this fall!

We will explore the civic and intellectual virtues of community awareness, neighborliness, service, gratitude, curiosity, and more through interactive sessions with our LCM educators, local role models, and other teens in the city. There is also a work-study component in which you will have the opportunity to work in the Museum for a few hours each weekend to understand our exhibits, consider guests' needs, and learn about engaging children in play.

Lilly Endowment Inc.
A private foundation since 1937
